HUMILIATING .- We understand that Gov Wi lard said in his speech at the Galt Hous on Saturday right, that, if this country is to be paved, it must be done through the aid of thre hundred and fifty thousand fore-gners. We are ast 1 hed, that an American clilzen, borr n our country and reared under our institution co li bring himself, even in the midst of a vie t party co test, to make such a degrading declaration. It was unworthy to be utterby American lips and unfit to fall upon Ameri ran ears. It should have been hissed by the Governor Jones of Tenressee lu 1852. The ersons in the North whom he charged with a iment adverse to the Union were Gerrison Parker, Phillips, & Co, and the persons in the bouth were the tire-eaters He sween awfully ne of the traitors on the highest gibbet, auc et .. bighest nride in this world next to being esident. And now this man, lately so ambi ous to be the hangman of the Southern Lie sters, is fighting side by side with them, dis raging the Union upon all occasions, and de aring in favor of its immediate dissolution in e event of the election of a particular candi late to the Presidency by a majority of the sople of the United States. By his own de aration, be is "accursed of Heaven, and utter accursed by all good men." Let him hang he traitor that he can do the righteous job for nost conveniently, that is himself, and there vill be enough patriots to do the same good office

In striking contrast with the language opl yed by some other Buchanan orators is e fullowing employed by Gov. Wise in the eight of his late disunion harangue at Rich or his accomplices

If the great Corypbeus of disunion could thus turn aside from dark thoughts of treason to throw a garland upon the sunlit brow of the medel patriot of the nation, with what wild and boundless devotion should not his friends and the friends of the Union fold hun to their hearts. With so capable and just and glorious a candidate, and, moveover, cheered and supported by so many thousands of gallant Wui the American party must be a hand of idler and recreants if they do not at least descri and recreamts if they do not at least deserve success. If their exertions are completely worthy of the character of their leader they will not only deserve success but most certainly win it. And what true American, when a victory so wast and preclous to the Union 1s at stake, will not scorn to faiter or lag in the mighty conflict?

"Fillmone's Law."—Under this sneering title the Republican papers of the North are daily publishing and re-publishing the fugitive slave law in their columns with the most abust as we comments upon what they term Mr. Fillmore's devotion to the interests of slavery. Their abuse 1s of course false and malicious, yet not more false and malicious or more lavies, the more false and malicious or more lavies of the fugitive slave law by the Buchanan papers of the South. Yes, while these pretended, the venton the Buffalo Commercial of the fugitive slave law by the Buchanan papers of the South. Yes, while these pretended, the venton the Rissouri Compromise. I may or may not suit your latitude, but I have not one thing for the South and autother for the North, and therefore I send it.

In conclusion, permit as to express my eight and therefore I send it. ampions par excellence of Southern rights, li the teeth of our whole recent history, includ ing their own former grateful tributes of adiration and respect, are denouncing the Amercan candidate as an Abolitlonist, the Abolionis's themselves are denouncing him just as bitterly and furlously as a pro-slavery man and srived in the bosoms of Southern Democrats h has been curdled by party spirit into as intense and bitter execuation as that which festers i the hearts of the Abolitionists whom he braved ge' he co se t of his own pairiotise. and still nobly defies. RESTORATION OF THE MISSOURI COMPRO-MISE —As the duties of a statesman are no precisely those of a debating club, it alway ries the patience of practical men to see et certain that it will never be passed at all. The present Congress will pass no such act, for the Senate has a large Democratic majority. The next Congress will not pass it, for the reason that the Democrats will stiff have the ascendency in the Senate. Even the most sanguine of the Republican journals admit this, and no mau in that party is extravagant enough to claim that in the next Congress the Senate will be favorable bother views. The New York Evanting Post made an estimate, day before yesterday, in whiteh after claiming the election in several States which the Republicars are likely to lone, it only reckined on 25 of the 62 members of the Senate for Frenancia.
